

Resignations Mark CIA Clean-Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three more top officials in the CIA's counterintelligence division are stepping down in the midst of a reported policy dispute and allegations that the agency was involved in domestic spying.

Along with the resignation of counterintelligence chief James J. Angleton, the three departures leave vacant the top command of the division, which is known to have disagreed sharply with CIA Director William E. Colby over detente with the Soviet Union and Colby's public discussions of agency activities.

"Colby is using this to clean house," a well-informed source said of the departures.

Meanwhile, it was learned that Angleton, named in published reports as the overseer of the alleged domestic spy operation, once served on an interagency panel that reported directly to the White House on the threat of domestic demonstrations and disturbances.

The so-called Intelligence Evaluation Committee was headed by Robert C. Mardian, former assistant attorney general and now a defendant in the Watergate cover-up trial. The sources said the committee was assisted by a staff which included

Richard Ober, who has been named as the man who ran the CIA's alleged domestic surveillance activities on a day-to-day basis.

Angleton has denied any involvement in illegal domestic spying. Ober, once an aide to Angleton and now on the National Security Council staff, has declined to comment.

In addition to Angleton, 57, whose resignation was requested by Colby 10 days ago, Raymond Rocca, 57, No. 2 man in the counterintelligence division, Newton S. Miler, 48, chief of operations, and William J. Hood, 54, executive officer, are also leaving the agency at the end of this month. Rocca, Miler and Hood confirmed Sunday they were stepping down, but declined to discuss their reasons.

The CIA's mandatory retirement age is 65 for most of its employees, but the agency requires those who have served overseas to retire at age 60 and urges others to do so as well.

One source said Miler had been Angleton's choice to ultimately succeed him as counterintelligence chief.

A source who worked with all four officials said their decisions were influenced in part by added benefits available to government employees who retire before the end of the year.

However, the source said allegations of domestic surveillance and a long standing policy dispute with Colby were the major factors in the retirements of Rocca and Miler.

It was learned that Angleton's name was mentioned in one draft of the 50-page report on the alleged domestic spying that Colby has forwarded to President Ford. Details of the reference to Angleton could not be determined.

A well-informed source said the counterintelligence staff disagreed "totally" with Colby over interpretation of events in the Soviet bloc and was more suspicious than higher policymakers about the Soviet Union's expressed desire for detente.

Angleton and his staff were said by this source to believe that the agency was being destroyed by Colby's disclosures of agency activities, including CIA involvement in Chile and agency contacts with U.S. journalists abroad.

The source added that the counterintelligence staff objected in general to Colby's policy of increased public appearances, particularly his debate earlier this year with Daniel Ellsberg at a panel sponsored by a research group critical of the CIA.

Hood was identified by several sources as head of the agency's operations in New York City during the early 1970's. The New York Times reported in its Sunday edition that as many as 25 CIA agents spied on anti-war activists and other militants in New York during the late 1960's and early 1970's. Hood called the report "absolute nonsense."

On Sunday, Sen. William Proxmire,

D-Wis., said on ABC News' "Issues and Answers" that he had learned from what he called very reliable sources of his own that the CIA did conduct surveillance, break-ins and wiretaps while spying on American citizens in this country.

Proxmire called for establishment of "an independent special prosecutor with subpoena powers who will prosecute every illegal action by CIA agents, past or present." He also said Congress should amend the act creating the CIA to clear up any ambiguity over the prohibition against domestic operations by the agency.

Time magazine reported this week that Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and three congressmen were targets of CIA surveillance during the 1960's.

A well-informed source told The Associated press he had searched CIA files in 1970 in response to a request from a special House subcommittee investigating possible impeachment proceedings against Douglas. But the source said he found only a newspaper clipping mentioning Douglas as a director of a foundation which had connections with the CIA in the Dominican Republic and a prospectus from the foundation in which Douglas was again identified as a director.

As for the late Sen. Edward Long of Missouri, Rep. Claude Pepper, D-Fla., and former Rep. Cornelius E. Gallagher of New Jersey, also named by Time as targets of CIA spying, the source said, "We wouldn't have the slightest interest." Pepper said that Colby had called him Sunday to assure him that the CIA was not keeping a file on him.

YMCA Expansion Committees Headed By Zehner, Edman

JIM EDMAN, CARL ZEHNER

Pickaway County Family YMCA Building Campaign General Chairman Robert Johnson today announced the appointment of Pastor Carl Zehner and DuPont Development Supervisor James R. Edman to serve the current expansion program as chairmen.

Pastor Zehner, minister of the Trinity Lutheran Church, will head the government solicitation committee with primary responsibilities to contact all public officials in Pickaway County.

Pastor Zehner and his wife Dee of 131 E. Mound St. have three children, a daughter and two sons.

He is a member of the Pickaway County Ministerial Association and the Pickaway County Children's Services Board.

It will be the responsibility of Edman to coordinate industry cooperation in the campaign to bring a new YMCA facility to Pickaway County. Increasing the "livability" for employees and residents of the area will be a big "spin-off" from the addition of a new indoor swimming pool, classrooms, and game rooms at the Nicholas Drive location.

Edman and his wife Ramona of 660 Hawthorne Dr. have three children, Kristine, Steven, and David.

He is an active member of Community United Methodist Church, the YMCA Board of Management, the American Chemical Society, co-chairman of the Y membership drive, and 1974 industrial chairman of the Community Fund Drive.

Ford May Include Tax Cut Proposal In Economic Plan

VAIL, Colo. (AP) — President Ford has been urged by some of his economic advisers to push for a tax cut to bolster the faltering economy.

Ford also was reported ready to abandon his proposed income tax surcharge, a measure he urged earlier this year when he declared inflation to be public enemy No. 1.

However, the deepening recession reportedly has led some White House economic advisers to push for a tax cut. That advice was said to have been given to Ford over the weekend when he met with his economic advisers.

There was no indication whether Ford will propose a tax cut. Ford has sworn his advisers to secrecy, and press Secretary Ron Nessen has said that Ford will not announce any new programs until his State of the Union address sometime after the new Congress convenes on Jan. 14. But Nessen said Ford plans "fundamental changes" in the management of the nation's economy.

The President's reappraisal of the income tax surcharge was widely predicted when it became clear that the surcharge had very little support in Congress, even among lawmakers from Ford's own party.

As Ford continues his working vacation here, he is facing decisions on 122 bills passed by Congress. He must act by midnight tonight on a controversial measure to control strip mining.

Ford has promised to veto the bill on the grounds that it would discourage coal production and add to inflationary pressures.

Nessen has said Ford has but two options on strip mining: to sign a formal veto message or simply let the legislation die without his signature. In recent days, however, some businessmen who presumably would be adversely affected by the bill have urged Ford to change his mind and sign it lest the new Congress vote a tougher measure.

Now in the homeward-bound stretch of his work-and-ski vacation that began Dec. 22, Ford sandwiched about two hours of skiing between work sessions at his snow-covered ski chalet Sunday.

He has been on the slopes each day here except Friday when he held a day-long conference with energy policy advisers.

Sirica Instructs Cover-Up Jury

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica is going to tell jurors in the Watergate cover-up trial that the pardon granted Richard M. Nixon should not be factor in their deliberations.

"Neither the pardon of former President Richard M. Nixon nor any other case or extraneous matters should have any effect on your deliberations or your verdict," Sirica said in the instructions he planned to read to the jury today.

After hearing the judge's instructions on the legal issues in the case, the nine women and three men who have listened to 11 weeks of arguments and testimony will begin the task of deciding the guilt or innocence of the five defendants.

The long trial was the climax of the scandal that forced Nixon to resign the presidency less than two years after he was reelected by one of the largest margins ever.

The grand jury that returned the cover-up indictment last March 1, also named Nixon, then still president, an unindicted co-conspirator.

The five defendants are former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, ex-White House aides H. R. Haldeman and John D. Ehrlichman, former Assistant Atty.

Gen. Robert C. Mardian and Kenneth W. Parkinson, one-time lawyer for the Nixon re-election committee.

All were charged with conspiring to obstruct the investigation of the Watergate break-in. All but Mardian were charged with obstruction of justice and Mitchell, Haldeman and Ehrlichman also were charged with lying to the grand jury and the Senate Watergate committee.

In addition to telling the jurors not to be influenced by the Nixon pardon, Sirica said they should "not draw any inference against any party because a particular prospective witness may not have appeared."

Sirica urged the jurors to decide the case "solely on the evidence presented here in court."

The jury has heard testimony from more than 80 witnesses, about 30 of whom were called by the prosecutors. All five defendants testified.

But some of the most dramatic and damning words the jurors heard were from the White House tapes.

The jury listened to 31 tapes, most of which covered conversations involving Nixon and his top aides.

During their deliberations the jurors will be able to listen again to any of the tapes they already have heard.

The final week of the trial, interrupted by a two-day Christmas recess, was taken up by final arguments from prosecution and defense lawyers.

The prosecution summation took about six hours. The five defense lawyers spent a total of more than 14 hours.

Plutonium Missing From Plants

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid reports that the government cannot account for some plutonium, Rep. Les Aspin said today he will seek a five-year ban on plutonium recycling to allow time for safeguards to protect the material from possible theft and use in homemade atomic weapons.

The recycling process restores plutonium as a nuclear reactor fuel. At one point in the process, it is in the pure state used for atomic weapons and as such would be shipped around the country, he said.

"What happens when a bunch of crazies hijack a truckload of plutonium and announce they're going to take out a city unless their demands are met?" Aspin asked in a statement released by his office.

"We need to be dead certain that it is impossible to steal plutonium, not difficult, not risky, not unlikely, but completely impossible," the Wisconsin Democrat said.

The New York Times reported Sunday that the federal government is unable to account for thousands of pounds of uranium and plutonium.

The nuclear materials are unaccounted for at 15 commercial plants in the United States regulated by the Atomic Energy Commission, the Times said. One unidentified plant has not accounted for about 9,000 pounds of highly enriched uranium, the Times article said.

The newspaper quoted experts as saying that the failure of the AEC to account for the missing materials leave doubts that they may have fallen into the hands of terrorist groups or hostile governments.

Chief Fears War In Spring

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim says the chances of a new Middle East war will be "very real" unless there is a breakthrough toward an Arab-Israeli political settlement by spring.

By that time, he explained in a year-end interview, the mandates of the peacekeeping forces run out and their renewal will require the consent of Israel, Egypt and Syria.

The mandate for the U.N. Emergency Force separating Egyptian and Israeli troops in the Sinai ends on April 24. That of the U.N. Disengagement Observer Force between Syrian and Israeli troops is up on May 31.

On other subjects, Waldheim said he:

—Disagrees with the contention of the United States that the Asian, African and Communist members of the U.N. General Assembly exercised a "tyranny of the majority" in the session that has just ended.

—Does not expect a cutback in voluntary U.S. contributions to the world organization despite adverse congressional reaction to various Assembly votes.

—Believes the oil-price confrontation which has developed during the past year proves that cooperation is necessary between the producers of raw materials and the industrialized world.

Waldheim said on the basis of his recent visits to Syria, Israel and Egypt, he believes that all three countries want to negotiate a settlement. But they all emphasized that if a settlement is not reached soon, they are ready for war, he said.

The former Austrian foreign minister said Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger "and other governments" are continuing a step-by-step policy, seeking a peace settlement.

He said resumption of the Geneva peace talks — which the Soviet government is urging — depends on

"I think the decision of the parties concerned would then depend on the kind of progress which has been made between now and that time," Waldheim said.

GRAFFITI

TEMPER IS A VALUABLE POSSESSION -- DON'T LOSE IT

how the step-by-step negotiations go along. A key issue in the Geneva talks will be whether to let the Palestine Liberation Organization participate, Waldheim said. Israel strongly opposes PLO participation.

Discussing the oil situation, Waldheim said the developing countries have shown they will no longer accept an "obsolete" economic order in which "one-third of humanity has everything and the other two-thirds are living in misery."

They must be given "reasonable prices for their raw materials," he went on, but "this should be done not through a confrontation but through a reasonable cooperation, taking into account also the justified interests of the industrialized world."

Earthquake Toll 4,700 In Pakistan

PATTAN, Pakistan (AP) — The earthquake that hit northern Pakistan during the weekend killed an estimated 4,700 persons and injured about 15,000 in nine villages, rescue officials said today. They said the final casualty toll could be even higher when reports arrive from isolated regions north of Pattan.

The villages were clustered about Pattan, nestled among the snow-capped Karakoram Mountains about 200 miles north of the Pakistani capital of Islamabad. The quake struck Saturday evening and tremors followed intermittently for the next 24 hours. First word of the disaster was brought out by runners.

The quake almost destroyed this village of 10,000, leaving hardly one house intact. Senior army officers taking part in rescue operations estimated 500 inhabitants of Pattan were dead and 2,000 injured.

Army rescue teams have been working around the clock since shortly after the quake struck, treating the injured, pulling bodies from the wreckage and mounting a helicopter-borne mercy airlift.

Because of the widespread damage to houses many people have been sleeping in the open in temperatures that drop to near freezing at night. Nearly every family has reported losing one or more relatives in the disaster.

Efforts to bring in more blankets and tents have been hampered because the Karakoram Highway, the country's main one which runs through the disaster-struck region, has been either severed or demolished along a 70-mile stretch.

Some of the seriously injured were flown to hospitals in Rawalpindi.

Quakes occurred Sunday northwest of Anchorage, Alaska; at Richmond, Calif., in the San Francisco Bay area, and in central Chile. There were no reports of casualties or serious damage.

Officials described the noontime Chilean earthquake as "very long and intense."

Two moderate earthquakes hit near Anchorage, Alaska — the first about the same time as the Chilean tremor; and the second about five hours later. Both registered 4.8 on the Richter scale.

A quake struck the Richmond, Calif. area about 7½ hours earlier than the Chilean tremor, registering 3.5 on the Richter scale.

Richter scale measurements of the Chilean and Pakistani earthquakes were not available.

The Richter scale is a means of measuring a quake in which every number on the scale means a tenfold increase in magnitude. Thus a magnitude of 7.5 is 10 times greater than one of 6.5.

The San Francisco earthquake of 1906 registered 8.25.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market declined moderately today, fighting the pressure of yearend tax-selling.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was down 2.90 at 599.26, and losers virtually doubled the number of gainers on the New York Stock Exchange.

The NYSE ticker tape ran late repeatedly through the morning, and an extensive number of issues were traded as investors came down to the last two days in which they could take losses for 1974 tax purposes.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index fell .58 to 58.77.

Gold stocks were generally weak on the eve of the removal of the ban on private ownership of gold bullion by U.S. citizens.

The NYSE's composite common-stock index was off .24 at 35.12.

Man Faces Charges In Wife's Slaying

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — Police have charged Thomas Cooley, 44, with aggravated murder in the shooting death of his estranged wife, Louella, 41, at her Perry Township home just outside Massillon Sunday night.

Authorities said Cooley was arrested when he arrived at his wife's home about two hours after she was killed.

Nab Trio Supplying Drugs To Prisoner

Pickaway County Sheriff's Authorities have cracked a drug ring supplying drugs to a prisoner in the county jail.

Arrested in the incident Saturday were, Susan Cestaro, Cleveland for complicity and possession of marijuana; Mark Philip, Cleveland, for complicity and possession of marijuana and Susan Luchetti, Cleveland, for furnishing hypodermics to another person, conspiring to furnish narcotics and possession of a hypodermic.

Quite concerned over the incident, Sheriff Dwight Radcliff was informed that narcotics had been slipped into the jail, but was unable to discover anything during searches.

Deputies in charge of the jail during visiting hours Saturday, came across the hypo and syringe when checking items which were intended for Dennis Gaul. Gaul is Ms. Luchetti's boyfriend.

The instruments were found in a small box of Sir Walter Raleigh pipe tobacco. The trio removed the cellophane paper from the box, unsealed the pouch and placed the syringe, needles and some pills in the tobacco.

The pouch was then resealed, placed back in the box and the cellophane paper resealed with airplane glue.

Deputies were able to identify the vehicle and apprehended the trio on Route 23 near 762.

Detective Don Thompson and Deputies John Bost and James Deal were given consent to search the vehicle, which was owned by Susan Cestaro.

Thompson confiscated marijuana and charged Cestaro and Philip with possession. The other charges were filed against the trio after further interrogation at the Sheriff's office.

Radcliff has been concerned that incidents like this would happen, especially with those prisoners who come in for the weekend.

"We have to watch for this," Radcliff commented, "and the only way to stop it, is to search every prisoner when he is processed."

Many different articles are found on prisoners, but this is the first time authorities have discovered the trafficking of drugs in the jail.

The three appeared in Municipal Court today.

Ms. Cestaro was charged $100 and costs for the possession of marijuana. She pleaded not guilty to the complicity charge, waived a preliminary hearing and was bound to grand jury on a $5000 bond.

Philip was charged $100 and costs for possession of marijuana but pleaded not guilty on the complicity charge. Released on a $5,000 bond, he will appear in Municipal Court Jan. 3.

Ms. Luchetti pleaded not guilty on all three charges and will appear in Municipal Court Jan. 3. Total bond was set at $10,000.

Brezhnev Cancels Trip To Mideast

MOSCOW (AP) — Tass announced today that Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev's visit to Egypt, Syria and Iraq in January has been indefinitely postponed.

The announcement by the Soviet news agency gave no explanation. But informed Egyptian sources in Cairo said the postponement was due to continuing differences between the Soviet and Egyptian leaders over political and military questions.

"The new date of the visit, reciprocally acceptable to all parties, will be agreed upon later," Tass said.

The postponement was agreed on after Brezhnev and other Soviet leaders met for 35 minutes Sunday afternoon with Egyptian Foreign Minister Ismail Fahmy and War Minister Abdel Ghany Gamasy, who made a hurried trip to Mosco Saturday.

Fahmy met today with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko while Gamasy met with the Soviet defense minister, Marshal Andrei Grechko.

The sources in Cairo said that the Soviet and Egyptian governments were unable to agree on the best approach toward an Arab-Israeli settlement and on Egypt's military needs.

The postponement apparently signified a major setback to the Soviet government's campaign to regain its former influence on Egyptian policy and at the same time undercut the close, cooperative relationship that has developed between President

Ford Signs Park Bill

VAIL, Colo. (AP)—President Ford signed bills Saturday authorizing $2.9 billion for new military and defense construction and establishing the Cuyahoga Valley National Recreation Area in Ohio.

The military appropriation bill for fiscal 1975 includes a section authorizing the secretary of defense to aid communities located near the Trident support site in Bangor, Wash., for increased municipal services resulting from the impact of placing the Trident facilities in the area.

And, it designates the Observatory Hill home of the chief of naval operations in Washington as the temporary official residence of the vice president.

With some reservations, Ford signed the Cuyahoga Valley bill that paves the way for preservation of thousands of acres of unspoiled land.

Ford expressed misgivings about a provision for federal reimbursement to local agencies for police and fire services.

He asked Congress to amend the legislation so that police and fire services are provided by local agencies, without federal reimbursement, as in other federal recreational areas.

Ohio Couple Among Dead In Guatemala

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The bodies of a Columbus couple killed in a chartered plane crash in northern Guatemala this weekend will be returned to the United States Tuesday.

Mrs. Margaret Cardosi, the mother of Peggy Burget, 50, said the bodies of her daughter and her son-in-law, Gail, 51, would be flown to Texas Tuesday. She said they would then be shipped to Columbus by the family.

Burget, part owner of Rainbow Dry Cleaners, and his wife were among 21 American tourists killed Saturday when a chartered airplane crashed in flames near the Mayan ruins of Tikal.

Mrs. Cardosi said the couple was vacationing and had planned to return to Columbus in mid-January. They had no children.

The twin-engine aircraft had just lifted off from Tikal airport to return to Guatemala City, when it crashed 100 yards from the unpaved runway and burst into flames.

Officials had not determined the cause of the accident Sunday.

Rescue workers said they had difficulty removing the badly burned bodies from the wreckage because of the jungle darkness. The victims were placed in plastic body bags Sunday and were flown to Guatemala City where they were identified.

Visit Site Of Kidnap

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—A 12-stop bus tour and opening arguments were scheduled today in the trial of Clifford Kroger, a former Cincinnati charged with the kidnapping of a television executive's 4-year-old daughter.

Jurors were to view the home of Charles Mechem, where Allison Mechem was pulled from her tricycle while playing in the driveway Sept. 23.

The girl was found 24 hours later at a nearby motel and a $128,000 ransom was never picked up.

Kroger, a resident of Winter Park, Fla., tied to the kidnapping by fingerprints on a ransom note, police said.

His attorneys will attempt to prove he was in a suburban Cincinnati motel at the time of the kidnapping.

Dear Friends,

Wishing each other a 'Happy New Year' we should realize that 'happiness' is an inward feeling of contentment which can only be achieved by a generosity of spirit — by doing unto others as we would have others do unto us. Selfishness and happiness are incompatible.

If we can — all of us — resolve to be truly tolerant and considerate of our fellowmen during the coming year, it will surely be a

A Page Of Opinion

1975 Food Guess

In the unlikely event any housewives are planning their 1975 menus, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has given an advance preview of what it expects to be in plentiful supply next year and what it does not. Although the department expects food prices generally to be up 15 per cent in 1975, prices of individual items will depend in large part on availability.

Those who like oranges for breakfast are in luck. They may want to include oranges in other meals as well, for the department expects a bumper crop. Hard pressed to find other foods in a similar state, the department mentioned fresh fruits and vegetables or many kinds, mentioning lemons and potatoes especially.

Poultry and dairy products may be less plentiful and more expensive. Also wheat and soybeans and products made from them. Processed foods of all kinds may be higher in price because of added costs between the farmer and the consumer.

Beef may be a relative bargain next year because of the shorter feeding time farmers are allotting to cattle. Pork and lamb supplies may be down and prices up.

All of these are no more than projections. As consumer tastes change because of fluctuating supplies and prices, so could the demand — in itself creating a reaction in the market place.

Harrods Hardly Hesitated

ON THE LINE
By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — The British have a marvelous ability to turn the meanest of setbacks into a re-affirmation of their eternal faith that they eventually will prevail — God being an Englishman, as everyone knows.

Harrods, London's magnificent all-purpose department store, is as commercially beloved by the British as the Cathedral at Coventry was revered. The cathedral was razed by Nazi bombs during the Battle of Britain. Harrods was blasted just before Christmas by the nut wing of the old Irish Republican Army, a splinter movement which believes such cowardly attacks on peaceful citizens is the best way of forcing the Crown to pull out of Ulster.

Neither attack worked. A new cathedral reaches up from the debris of the old one, and Harrods reopened its doors in a jiffy or two and continued to offer just about everything a person could want — including, it is said, "his" and "her" elephants.

"The store is as busy as ever," one of its executives said contentedly as his eye roamed over the crowded floor. Then, with wonderful predictability, he added a line that might have come from Churchill or King Arthur, "Dear old England, bless her."

One doesn't hear a New Yorker or a Detroitier say, as the homicide figures nudge toward the thousand mark, "That's America for you! Lord love her!" If memory serves, nobody in Saigon used to break into that country's national anthem during the days when the Viet Cong were rolling grenades down the aisles at a children's movie.

At the risk of starting my dear old grandfather from County Clare a-spinning in his grave, it must be said that the British are right about themselves: they are indeed something special within the human species.

Churchill perhaps best summed up their eternal optimism in his speech in Commons in June, 1940, as several hundred thousand British troops were being kicked off the beaches of Dunkirk:

"We shall not flag or fail," he said, as the sound of flagging or failing grew louder. "We shall fight in France," he went on, about the roar of the British fleeing from France. "We shall fight on the seas and oceans (with those rusty over-aged U.S. destroyers?) and we shall fight with growing confidence and growing strength in the air. (They did!) We shall defend our island, whatever the cost may be, we shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight in the fields (with pitchforks?) and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills; we shall never surrender."

His words still raise goosebumps upon the hide of a reader. So does his "Let us therefore brace ourselves to our duties, and so bear ourselves that, if the British Empire and its Commonwealth last for a thousand years, men will still say: 'This was their finest hour.'" Obviously, it was not their finest hour. It was their paralyzing hour. They stood alone that day in June, 1940 — a long year and a half before they won the full muscle of the U.S. more by an accident of judgment in the Pacific than any design in the Atlantic.

The British brought a wry sense of humor to the cruelest war in their history.

A helmeted warden, poking through the ruins of a bombed-out house, came upon an old lady covered with the ruins of plaster, dishes and whatnot?

"Are you all right, Mum?" he asked.

"Certainly," she said, "as you can

Business World

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The outlook for many segments of the 1975 economy is, as the hedging economist is inclined to say, "somewhat cloudy," but that description hardly fits housing.

One of the clear and bright prospects in that generally cloudy outlook, housing is expected to recover from its latest bout with recession as the year wears on, maybe even becoming vigorous by fall.

Home-seekers may find lenders solicitous rather than officious. The likelihood of 20 to 25 per cent down payments by midyear is strong, even if interest rates might remain around 9 per cent or more.

The explanation reveals itself automatically when you look at the recent experience of savings and loans and savings banks, which provide most individual home mortgages.

In a three-month period this year the savings and loans alone saw $2.87 billion of savings disappear from their books, withdrawn by owners who sought higher returns in government and corporate securities.

When this sort of thing — disintermediation — happens, both the thrifts and the housing industry become anemic, the life blood flowing from their veins. But now the transfusion has begun.

With record-high interest rates now falling in other money markets, funds are again flowing into the thrifts. If it continues, they should be able to finance a lot more housing than they could in 1974.

These statistics will provide an idea of what high interest rates did to the thrifts and housing: In 1973, housing starts totaled 2.2 million; in 1974 the rate fell to one-half that total.

Opinions vary about whether or not the decline should be attributed to the see."

"Where's the old man?"

"The bloody coward is serving at the front," she said, dusting herself.

Then the Luftwaffe made the mistake of bombing Fleet Street, as if to make it stop quoting Churchill's blasts. ("This wicked man Hitler, the repository and embodiment of many forms of soul-destroying hatred, this monstrous product of former wrongs and shame.")

The bombs blew in the windows and walls of some of the world's best newspapers. But the spirit of Harrods stood firm. The following day, one of those papers carried a front-page headline. It read: lack of lendable funds, but few students of housing will argue that 75 per cent of it was. Credit is everything to a home-buyer.

BOMB INJURED IN FALL ON FLEET STREET.

Now, with credit becoming available, the need for housing also is rising. As population increases, and the number of new household formations also, the need for housing grows. It cannot be postponed indefinitely. Any slump is generally followed, if not by a boom, then by a lot of construction noise.

Only one passing cloud is being watched suspiciously, and that is the decline in spendable income. If incomes stagnate well into 1975, that cloud could spill some rain.

However, the prospect is strong that after-tax incomes will improve if the rate of inflation declines, and that the consumer's confidence, which evaporated with that decline, will return.

It's still not the best outlook, but it's a great improvement over 1974, when the cellar-holes of aborted houses provided a grim picture of the times. A new house is much prettier.

Jack Benny Funeral Held In California

CULVER CITY, Calif. (AP) — Entertainment notables representing eras from vaudeville to television said farewell to Jack Benny, the humorist whom pal Bob Hope called "a national treasure."

Sunday's turnout was one of the largest and most emotional in recent years for a funeral of a show business personality. Hope's usual composure broke as he delivered a tribute, interspersed with references to old Benny punch lines.

Referring to Benny's standing joke about his alleged pennypinching nature, Hope said "he was stingy to the end; he gave us only 80 years and that wasn't enough."

Good friend George Burns, 78, also selected to give a eulogy, told the 350 persons in Hillside Memorial Park Chapel in Culver City: "I don't know whether I'll be able to do this, but I told Mary I'd try."

Benny's widow, Mary Livingstone, attended the traditional Jewish funeral but remained in the family room at the side of the chapel. Benny's adopted daughter, Joan, and three granddaughters were with her.

The whole gang from Benny's old television and radio show was on hand: band leader Phil Harris, singer Dennis Day, announcer Don Wilson, violin teacher-instructor Mel Blanc, valet Eddie "Rochester" Anderson.

Benny, who died of cancer of the pancreas late Thursday night, was compared by Hope to such performers as Al Jolson, Humphrey Bogart, Clark Gable, Will Rogers and Maurice Chevalier. "He had a rare magic, like Picasso and Gershwin."

Today In History

Today is Monday, December 30, the 364th day of 1974. There is one day left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1911, Sun Yat-sen was elected first provisional president of the Republic of China.

On this date—

In 1775, an American force was defeated at Quebec.

In 1853, the Gadsden purchase was made by treaty with Mexico for territory which now is the southern portion of Arizona and New Mexico.

In 1865, the English author, Rudyard Kipling, was born.

In 1873, Alfred E. Smith, the 1928 Democratic candidate for president, was born.

In 1944, King George of Greece proclaimed a regency to rule his native land and virtually renounced the throne.

In 1945, military authorities in Berlin made public copies of Hitler's last will and his marriage contract with Eva Braun.

Ten years ago: The United Nations Security Council resolved to call for an end to all foreign intervention in the Congo, a cease-fire there and a withdrawal of mercenaries.

Five years ago: The United States gave the Communist Vietnamese at peace talks in Paris a list of 1,406 missing American personnel, but the other side berated the move.

One year ago: Britain went into a three-day work week in a fuel-saving action that spread bitterness and confusion.

Today's birthdays: Motion picture director Carol Reed is 68. Actor Bert Parks is 60.

Thought for today: The best way to cheer yourself up is to try to cheer somebody else up — Mark Twain, American author, 1835-1910.

Plans were completed for the annual Blue Cross Community Enrollment for residents of Circleville and Pickaway County, the big chance that comes only once a year for eligible persons who do not have hospitalization.

Watch night gatherings and other special services to mark the end of the year and the beginning of the new year were planned by many churches in Circleville and the surrounding area.

A spot survey conducted by the Herald showed that the long squabble over the Route 23 bypass was the top news event of 1954. The second most important event was the Maizo Mill fire.

Pickaway County Commissioners okayed the construction of a new highway garage on W. High St. near the site of the present one. It was expected to cost about $10,000.

Motorists can avoid the irritation of finding frozen locks on car doors this winter by placing an adhesive bandage or plastic tape over the keyhole. To open a frozen lock, insert a key heated by a match or lighter, or squirt some deicer into the lock.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Two members of my family have pernicious anemia. I constantly worry that I, too, will get it. Is it possible for me to be tested to see if I'm a candidate for this disease?

Mr. E.R.E., Iowa

Dear Mr. E.:

Even though there seems to be a family tendency to pernicious anemia this should not be a destructive force in your life. The chances are slight that you, too, will develop this blood disorder.

Pernicious anemia can be detected by the many excellent definitive tests of the blood. In the absence of positive evidence, there is no way to predict the disease.

The great strides made in the treatment of pernicious anemia with vitamin B-12 have made it possible for people with "P.A." to live normal, healthy lives.

Our youngest child is poorly coordinated. His health is excellent. We wonder how we should proceed with this problem.

Mrs. G. B., Fla.

Paying More

By JIM BISHOP

Where did we go wrong? . . .

It seems a short while ago women were complaining because fresh ground steak was 15 cents a pound and good shoes were $4 a pair. My first long pants suit was akin to crushable navy cashmere and cost $27 with two pairs of pants. I always lived above my means.

A week ago, Mrs. Harold Morris sent part of a newspaper dated April 1, 1938. It was a page of food ads, and she circled some of the prices. Share my shock:

Sirloin steak was 33 cents a pound. A hundred pounds of "fine granulated sugar" was $4.85, less than five cents a pound. Two heads of lettuce for nine cents. Potatoes (No. 1 Maine), five lbs. for 10 cents.

Big red apples, seven for 25 cents. Bananas, three lbs., 10 cents. Sunshine Blend coffee, 15 cents a can. A two-pound jar of peanut butter, 19 cents. Can of tomatoes, six cents. Van Camp's Pork & Beans, three 11 oz. cans, 11 cents.

Bygone Traditions

Beyond belief? Of course. But let's be realistic. There is no way to get back to such traditions of America as the two-cents newspaper, the five-cents weekly magazine, the nickel bus ride and the big, sudsy two-bits bucket of beer.

We must think in terms of currency values. In 1909, Grandpa Tier, a good cop, earned $2 a day. He supported a family, bought lumber and built a summer bungalow at Tottenville, Staten Island. Two dollars today is what a bellman expects for carrying luggage into an elevator.

The steady spiral of inflation is caused by man's incessant demand for more money as the fruits of his labor, followed by business adding the extra cost (and a little more) to the price of merchandise.

One would have to go back to the year 1865 to find a hard, firm American dollar. The climb toward more and more currency with less and less purchasing power starts there. In severe economic recessions, the inflationary climb pauses, backs up, then starts again.

The cruelest hoax of all is the pension. Half-pay for life sounds good when you're 25. At 55 or 60, half-pay has lost much of its purchasing power. The aged who are sick and hungry are not permitted to complain. They lived their lives; they had their fun.

Let's examine 1938 prices and recall what the items cost today:

Corn Flakes, 5½ cents for an eight oz. package. Scott Tissue, four rolls for 25 cents. Large can Del Monte Pineapple Juice, two for 17 cents. Swift Premium corned beef hash, two 12 oz. cans, 19 cents.

Dear Mrs. B.:

Clumsiness and poor coordination, defects in reading and poor concentration may be caused by undetected and unrecognized eye problems.

Dyslexia, an all-inclusive term for many of these problems, can be ruled out with specialized instruments. A neurological examination and a complete physical workup must be done for the early detection of a possible disorder.

In the absence of any physical condition, tutoring can be helpful in sports and games. This must be done on an individual basis rather than in competition with other children.

In this way, embarrassment can be avoided. Children who are made conscious of their clumsiness have a tendency to avoid social contacts.

SPEAKING OF YOUR HEALTH . . .

One of the greatest gifts that can be given to a young child is to avoid overindulgence. Their sense of security stems from the reasonable but firm limits that are established for them.

Clapp Baby Foods, three cans, 25 cents. Dozen large white eggs, 35 cents. Dog Food, 10 one-lb. cans, 39 cents. Flour, 20 lbs. for 67 cents. Fresh tongue, 12 cents a lb. Hamburger, three lbs., 30 cents. Pork chops, 19 cents a lb.

Hams, half or whole, 19 cents a lb. Blue Rose Rice, five lbs., 15 cents. Can of tuna fish, 11 cents. Lemons, 15 per dozen. Head of cabbage, one cent a lb. Celery, three stalks, 10 cents.

Oranges cost 35 cents for two dozen. Onions, five cents a lb. Brillo pads, two pkgs., 15 cents. Philadelphia Cream Cheese, six cents. Seedless raisins, 24 oz., 19 cents.

Big Bus in Reverse

America is akin to a big glittering bus equipped with only one gear—reverse. Our technology is so superior that we can manufacture or grow anything bigger, better and more automated than ever. Everything should be cheaper, but isn't.

When a small town grows, with more people to share the cost of government and services, the individual tax does not fall—it rises. Automobile dealers who complain of unsold cars are told by the parent company, "Then hike your price. You can earn a profit on less volume."

Pure logic becomes illogical. It seems almost proper that the inmates are running the asylum. In the year of which I write, three packages of Jello sold for 14 cents. When I was single, and a wage earner, my spending money was $8 a month. Today, $50 a month won't cover the cost of wheels and fuel. The boy wants to keep his salary.

As kids, we devoured a lot of homemade vegetable soup and a lot of spaghetti. The latter came in two flavors—a steaming dish with canned tomatoes on top; or baked spaghetti with cheese.

Studying the 1938 newspaper, I begin to understand. Four packages of six-oz. spaghetti sold for 13 cents. Strange, we thought we were living rich . . .

He will advise the bishop on such matters as abortion, euthanasia, population control and human organ transplants, as well as on questions which are assuming more importance such as laboratory fertilization and experiments with human and animal cells.

Hocking Hills Winter Hike To Attract 2,500 Walkers

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series of stories designed to make Ohioans more aware of the winter activities available in their state parks. Many people do not realize the state parks are open year-round for their enjoyment, and that the parks offer a variety of cold-weather activities.

The Ohio Department of Natural Resources (DNR) and Mother Nature will join hands Jan. 11 to present a spectacular six-mile hike through the scenic winter wonderland at Hocking Hills State Park in Hocking County.

The 10th annual Winter Hike, from Old Man's Cave to Ash Cave, has grown in popularity each year. Some 2,500 hearty hikers participated in the 1973 Winter Hike — a substantial increase over the 140 who took part in the initial trek in 1966.

The first Winter Hike was jointly sponsored by DNR's division of parks and recreation, the Buckeye Trail Association and the Logan Daily News.

The late William S. Miller, editor and publisher of the Logan Daily News and then-president of the Buckeye Trail Association, was instrumental in initiating and promoting the annual winter trek. He took part in the original hike in 1966, then called the "Hocking Hike," serving as one of the five group leaders.

The 140 who participated in the first hike braved near-zero weather and more than a foot of snow to capture the scenic beauty of the Hocking Hills in both memories and photographs.

The 1966 and '67 Winter Hikes began at Ash Cave, and concluded at the Upper Falls near Old Man's Cave. By 1968, the popularity of the hike had grown to the point that it necessitated reversing the trail because more facilities and parking spaces were available at Old Man's Cave.

The year 1968 is a most memorable one for the Winter Hike. That year participation in the hike first exceeded the 1,000 mark. According to a Logan Daily News account, hikers braved "Knee-deep snow and biting winds which dropped the chill factor to below zero."

However, the breathtaking ice formations and the snow-covered hemlocks provided even the most avid camera buff infinite opportunities to take that "once in a lifetime picture."

The Winter Hike draws a variety of participants, ranging from the experienced hiker to the "city slicker" with leather-soled shoes, suit and overcoat. Insulated underwear, electrically-heated socks and thermos bottles of coffee and hot chocolate are commonplace.

Hikers of all ages have participated in the hikes. One of the better known is the late Emma Gatewood of Thurman, Ohio, who received the Governor's Community Action Award and an Award of Merit from the Department of Natural Resources during ceremonies at the 8th annual Winter Hike in January, 1973.

Grandma Gatewood, as she was fondly known to the thousands who accompanied her on hikes, was a group leader on each of the Winter Hikes until her death in June, 1973. She was 85.

This year's hike will start at 9 a.m. Jan. 11 from the picnic area at the Upper Falls near Old Man's Cave at Hocking Hills State Park. The park is 12 miles southeast of Logan on State Route 664.

Upon arrival, hikers will be split into groups of about 30 to 35, and each will be accompanied by a group leader familiar with the scenic park landmarks like Old Man's Gorge, Devil's Bathtub, Sphynx Head, Cedar Falls, Ash Cave and Queer Creek.

More than 2,500 participants are expected to take part in this year's hike, and the Department of Natural Resources suggests that those planning to attend get an early start.

FROZEN WONDERLAND—One of the many spectacular ice formations at Hocking Hills State Park literally dwarfs a group of hikers as they make their way along the trail through Old Man's Cave Gorge during the annual Winter Hike. Sponsored by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, this year's trek will be Jan. 11.

Approximately 50 group leaders will be on hand to guide the hikers. Fire barrels will be available at the beginning of the hike to help keep hikers warm until they hit the trail.

Radio-equipped park rangers will be located along the trail to assist hikers. An emergency vehicle will be on standby at the park in case of accidents.

"If the weather cooperates, there should be some magnificent ice formations suspended from cliffs along the trail," says Bill Loebick, chief naturalist for the division of parks and recreation.

There will be a lunch break halfway through the hike, where the Logan Kiwanis Club will serve steaming hot bean soup, hot chocolate and cornbread. Hikers can supplement the snack with sack lunches.

The Appalachian Green Parks Project, a folk music group from Ohio University, will entertain hikers at the end of the trek.

Buses will be available at Cedar Falls (the midway point of the hike) and also at Ash Cave to transport hikers back to the starting point at Old Man's Cave.

A nature movie at 8:30 p.m. Saturday at Hocking Hills Dining Lodge will conclude the day's festivities.

Those planning to attend the hike can make cabin reservations at either Hocking Hills or nearby Lake Hope State Park. Hocking Hills has 54 deluxe housekeeping cabins and 175 Class B campsites. Lake Hope has 25 deluxe cabins and 233 Class B campsites.

Loebick reminded hikers that Ohio's 62 state parks are open year-round, and about 40 of them have designated hiking trails. Some of the more popular winter hiking trails include ones at Beaver Creek, Burr Oak, Dillon, Findley, John Bryan, Hueston Woods, Van Buren, Mohican, West Branch, Lake Hope and Pike Lake state parks. Several Ohio hiking groups have winter treks scheduled in the near future.

The Buckeye Trail Association's annual winter hiking weekend will take place Feb. 8, at Burr Oak State Park near Athens. For additional information, contact the Buckeye Trail Association, Box 254, Worthington, Ohio 43085.

The OSU Mountaineers, a group of Ohio State students, will hike Jan. 11-12 at Hocking Hills State Park, Jan. 18-19 at Tar Hollow and Feb. 22-23 in Shawnee State Forest along the Shawnee Backpack Trail.

The hikes are open to all OSU students, staff members, faculty, alumni and guests. Coordinator of the hikes is Chad Brownhill, 1743 N. Fourth St., Apartment A, Columbus 43201.

The Central Ohio Hiking Club, operating out of the Columbus YMCA at 40 W. Long St., has scheduled a Jan. 26 hike along Alum Creek.

A goodly number of Herald readers are aware that the William Easterday involved in a collision and seriously injured at Chillicothe on Christmas eve day is Papa Bill of our home.

He remains in the intensive care unit at the Ross County Medical Center and I am sure it is needless to mention that ninety-nine and forty-four one hundredth per cent of our time, thoughts and energies are directed there.

We all are very appreciative and grateful for the many, many phone calls expressing deep concern and the offers of any needed assistance. It does much to ease the hurting of the heart to know there are so many who truly care.

Miss Jean Louise Ward, James M. Harral Are Wed

MRS. JAMES MITCHELL HARRAL

Miss Jean Louise Ward and Mr. James Mitchell Harral were united in marriage 6:30 p.m., Nov. 30th, at Grace United Church of Christ in Columbiana. The altar was enhanced with twin vases of yellow, white and bronze mums, and pompons, and banked with emerald palms. The center aisle was lined with hurricane lamps.

The Rev. Ernest Noll officiated the service for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Ward, 2836 Fairfield School Road, Columbiana, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harral, Route 4, Circleville.

A program of music preceding the wedding was presented by Mrs. Karl Bott, organist, and Miss Diane Wise, soloist.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, and given in marriage by both her parents. She wore a princess style gown of silk organza with a high neckline, deep V-yoke and long sleeves of cluny lace ending in ruffled cuffs. Lace trimmed the hemline and the Camelot headpiece of scalloped lace edged with seed pearls, holding the bride's veil of candlelight silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of Jack Frost sweetheart roses, white Fuji mums, stephanotis and baby's breath. The bride wore her grandmother's cameo necklace as her only jewelry.

Matron of honor, Mrs. James Ward, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a slipper length halter back gown of emerald green velvet, styled with a fitted high rise waistline softly gathered over the A-line skirt. The mandarin collar and sheer organza cape, edged in ivory cluny lace, also formed a bib effect at the front of the bodice. She carried a cascade arrangement of yellow and bronze Fuji mums and pompons.

Miss Alice Engberg, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Nancy Polz were bridesmaids. They were gowned as the honor attendant and carried matching bouquets.

Mr. William Harral performed the duties of best man for his brother. Ushers were Dr. Herbert Nichell and Mr. Mark Reed.

Mrs. Ward wore for her daughter's wedding a slipper length gown of banana maracain styled with a fitted waistline and self-fabric sash accented with a gold buckle. The matching jacket featured a draped yoke and collar.

Mrs. Harral was attired in a blue polyester knit floor length gown in the A-line design with long sleeves and lace bodice. Corsages for both mothers were of pale yellow double cymbidium orchids.

A buffet reception at the Mark K Room immediately followed the ceremony. Hurricane lamps centered the tables where guests were seated. Hosts were Mr. James Ward, brother of the bride; Mr. Michael Harral, nephew of the bridegroom and Miss Jane Strausbaugh, who presided at the guest register.

The bride is a graduate of Columbiana High School and the University of Akron. The bridegroom graduated from Logan Elm High School and the Ohio State University. The couple now resides at 160 Villa Drive in Circleville.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Don't Iron The Sackcloth

DEAR ABBY: I used to be one of your most devoted fans, but not anymore. How dare you say that people who don't iron their bedsheets, pillowcases and towels are just plain lazy!

Abby, haven't you ever heard of permanent press fabrics? When they came in, ironing bedsheets and pillowcases went out at my house. And nobody irons towels anymore. They just fold them.

A young relative put me on to the greatest time and money-saver yet: Have one set of quick-dry bedsheets and pillowcases for each bed. They can be laundered and put back on the beds in a few hours. The set I am using on my king-sized bed is in its ninth year and it's still good as new. (No cracks, please.)

EX-ABBY FAN

DEAR EX: You (and a lot of other people) have confused me with my twin sister Ann Landers. You read that in HER column-not mine. I spoke with her a few minutes ago and she's reconsidered; she's now doing penance-complete with sackcloth (UNIRONED) and ashes.

DEAR ABBY: Maybe I'm still a child, but I like the element of surprise on Christmas morning.

My husband insists on knowing what I want. He says he would rather get me something I want than spend money on something I don't want.

I keep telling him to "surprise" me, but he nags at me until I finally tell him. Then he orders it right in front of me. (This is a Christmas present?)

His mother is the same way. She asks me what I want for Christmas, too. It takes all the fun out of it for me.

I never ask anybody what they want. I use my imagination and enjoy shopping around to find things.

If I'm wrong, I'll take my lumps. If I'm right, I'll tape your answer on my husband's nose next year. Thanks.

JENNIE

DEAR JENNIE: Not everybody likes "surprises," but if you do, then your husband should surprise you. But don't grumble if he surprises you with a little nothing for which he spent too much.

DEAR ABBY: I need your help. I am 19, and I've been seeing this guy who is 30. I know he is too old for me. But that's not all. He's married and has two kids. How I got involved with him I'll never know.

This has got to end because there is no future in it for me. I have tried so hard to tell him, but he keeps calling me and calling me and he won't take no for an answer. I never should have started up with this guy, but he is a real fast talker.

I am not much of a talker, so I would like to write him a letter. That's where you come in Abby. Will you help me write it? I want to get across to him that I don't want to continue our love affair and to please leave me alone. Thank you.

WANTS OUT

DEAR WANTS: Don't put anything incriminating in writing! (You never can tell where a letter will wind up!) TELL HIM in plain English that you've seen him for the last time, and don't stick around for a debate. (P.S. If he calls you again, hang up on him.)

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NO BEAUTY" IN BEVERLY HILLS: I don't know who said it, but wise was he who quipped: "Beauty is a gift. Charm must be cultivated. A beautiful woman is one I notice. A charming woman is one who notices ME."

Ohio Hunters Given Warning

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Natural Resources has issued a warning to hunters to note the opening and closing hours of the second segment of the state's waterfowl hunting season.

Dan C. Armbruster, chief of the wildlife division, said the season opens at noon Jan. 1 and closes at sunset Jan. 4. He said an unusually large number of hunters were arrested during the first segment for hunting before or after legal hours.

With the exception of opening day, he said, waterfowl hunting hours are from a half hour before sunrise to sunset.

Ohio Ahead On Metrification

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio is a meter or two ahead of the rest of the states.

Not only have Ohio drivers begun seeing road signs marked in kilometers, but state highway engineers have begun building Ohio roads using meters instead of yards, kilometers instead of miles, centimeters instead of feet and inches.

"No one is as far advanced in the use of the metric system as we are," said Ginny McDaniels, who is in charge of the metric information program for the state Department of Transportation.

Ground breaking for Ohio's first road construction project using the metric system came in October. Since then state engineers and the contractor, Eagle Construction Co. of McArthur, have measured and built in meters and kilometers instead of yards and miles, Miss McDaniels said.

Engineers prepared specifications for the 1.7 kilometer or 1.1 mile project in meters with regular measurements in parentheses.

The project is part of a program to find out the difficulties of metrification, changing to the metric system.

The $686,000 construction project is on Ohio 93 just north of the Hocking-Vinton County line. It includes replacement of a bridge and reduction of a sharp curve.

The first project in the state's metric study program was a maintenance project in Licking County on Ohio 161 east of New Albany. Miss McDaniels called the earlier project, which was completed last summer, a success.

A second construction project in Perry County outside Thornville on Ohio 188 has not yet begun.

Miss McDaniels said the metrification study also included setting up distance signs in kilometers, distribution of information to the general public and gathering public reaction to the use of the metric system.

To convert miles into kilometers multiply them by 1.6.

To convert inches into centimeters multiply them by 2.54.

To convert ounces into grams multiply them by 28.

To convert a teaspoon into milliliters multiply them by 5, a tablespoon by 15, an ounce by 30, a quart to a liter multiply by .95.

U.S. Economic Indicators Drop

WASHINGTON (AP) — A record level of new claims for unemployment benefits drove the government's indicators of future trends in the economy down for the fourth consecutive month in November, the Commerce Department said today.

And at the same time, the Commerce Department reported that higher sugar prices helped put the nation's trade balance back to the negative side of the ledger after one month of advance. The United States imports much of its sugar.

The over-all decline in the Index of Leading Indicators, designed to foreshadow future trends in the economy, was 1.5 per cent in November.

Paul Dixon Rites Slated For Tuesday

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— Paul Dixon, whose daytime audience participation show tickled the funnybone of Midwest housewives for nearly two decades, will be buried Tuesday. He died Saturday at age 56.

Dixon, who said his show was geared toward making a heroine of housewife, was hospitalized after his Dec. 18 show. He underwent surgery later that night for a ruptured artery in his heart.

He appeared to be recovering when the repaired artery burst Saturday, hours after he was transferred to another hospital.

Funeral services are set for 2 p.m. Tuesday at St. Peter in Chains Cathedral.

Known as "Paul Baby" and "The Mayor of Kneessville," Dixon delighted his audiences with devilish stunts. He featured a garter-fitting ceremony—and openly scanned the legs in his audience with binoculars for the best candidate.

Dixon rose from a teen-aged disc jockey in Des Moines, Iowa to host of a popular Midwest program which was recently nationally syndicated.

"The Paul Dixon Show" would have marked its 20th anniversary in March. He has been with WLW television in Cincinnati for the past 10 years. The 90-minute show was also carried live in Columbus, Indianapolis and Dayton.

Avco Broadcasting Co. said a tribute would be shown during today's time slot.

Avco officials said they would decide today whether the show would continue with a new host.

Dixon came to Cincinnati in the mid-40s from Chicago. He built a reputation as a newsman and later became a disc jockey. One national magazine listed him among the nation's top 10 disc jockeys in 1951.

The man who hired him, Mort Watters of WCPO radio, praised him as "one of the greatest ad lib entertainers of all time."

He grew up in Albia, Iowa, and attended Drake University.

He is survived by his wife Marge and a daughter, Pam. His son, Greg, was killed in a 1970 traffic accident.

THE DAYTON POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF OHIO FOR AN INCREASE IN ELECTRIC RATES

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN
Pursuant to the requirements of Section 4909.19 of the Revised Code of Ohio, The Dayton Power and Light Company hereby gives notice that on May 9, 1974, it filed with The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio an Application for authority to modify and increase its rates and charges for electric service as to consumers subject to Ordinance Rates in the process of elimination in the City of Troy, to make a revision to its rules and regulations for electric service and to withdraw certain rate schedules.

The substance of the Application is as follows:

FUEL ADJUSTMENT CLAUSE
Present Fuel Adjustment Clause (as of May 9, 1974)
When the weighted average cost per one million Btu of fuel, consumed in the Company's electric generating facilities, during the calendar month immediately preceding the start of the billing month covered by the service bill decreases below or increases above 49.40¢ per one million Btu, there shall be a decrease or increase in the energy charges of 0.003¢ per kilowatt-hour for each change in the cost of 1¢ per one million Btu, and proportionately for each fraction thereof.

The weighted average cost of fuel, as used above, shall be defined as the cost, including freight, of fuel on hand at the first of each month, plus the cost of fuel received during the month, divided by the total amount of fuel on hand and received.

Proposed Fuel Adjustment Clause
When the weighted average cost per one million Btu of fuel, consumed in the Company's electric generating facilities during the calendar month immediately preceding the end of the billing month covered by the service bill decreases below or increases above $3.14¢ per one million Btu, there shall be a decrease or increase in the net energy charges of 0.0104¢ or a decrease or increase in the gross energy charges of 0.01149¢ per kilowatt-hour for each one cent (1¢) change in the cost per one million Btu, and proportionately for each fraction thereof.

The weighted average cost of fuel, as used above, shall be defined as the cost, including freight, of fuel on hand at the first of each month, plus the cost of fuel received during the month, divided by the total amount of fuel on hand and received.

The amount of the decrease or increase determined above shall be adjusted by the amount of any excise taxes saved or payable by the Company with respect to the amount of the decrease or increase so determined.

The consumer will be entitled to a prompt payment discount by payment of the net amount on or before 15 calendar days after rendition (mailing date) of the bill which reflects the application of this fuel adjustment clause, after which the gross amount shall be due and payable.

RESIDENCE RATES
It is proposed to eliminate the rate differential between consumers residing within and consumers residing outside of communities and to withdraw the Residence Rates now in the process of elimination which contain a separate Water Heating Service Rate with the result that all residential consumers would be served under a single rate.

Gator Bowl Opens Grid Card

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

Texas and Auburn, a couple of teams who disdain the forward pass in favor of basic, old-fashioned, grind-it-out ground games, kick off the final wave of college football bowl games tonight when they square off in the Gator Bowl.

The meeting between the sixth-ranked Auburn Tigers and the 11th-ranked Texas Longhorns will be nationally televised by ABC with game time at 9 p.m., EST. A crowd of about 62,000, somewhat short of the 70,000 capacity, is expected at Jacksonville, Fla.

On Tuesday night Nebraska and Florida will meet in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans. Then, on New Year's Day, Penn State plays Baylor in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas and Southern California takes on Ohio State in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., with Notre Dame opposing Alabama in the Orange Bowl in Miami that night.

In Saturday's bowl action, Mississippi State nipped North Carolina 26-24 in the Sun Bowl, Vanderbilt and Texas Tech battled to a 6-6 tie in the Peach Bowl and Oklahoma State beat Brigham Young 16-6 in the Fiesta Bowl. In the Shrine All-Star Game, the East defeated the West 16-14.

The Gator Bowl game is expected to be anything but an aerial circus. Texas ranked 128th and last among major teams in passing yardage, while Auburn was 123rd.

Texas quarterbacks Marty Akins and Mike Presley have completed just 33 of 99 pass attempts.

Texas compiled an 8-3 record on an attack built around the running of freshman Earl Cambell, senior Roosevelt Leaks and Akins. Campbell paced the Longhorns with 928 yards rushing, a 5.7 average per carry.

Auburn Coach Shug Jordan says he has nothing special against the pass. "We don't have a bad passing attack," he contends. "Phil Gargas and Chris Vaccarella, our quarterbacks, throw well. But we haven't had to pass that much."

Auburn fullback Sedrick McIntyre gained 863 yards on the ground, helping the Tigers to a 9-2 record. Rick Neel and Mitzi Jackson share the other backfield spot.

The Sugar Bowl matches Nebraska, 8-3, a team which depends on the passing of Dave Humm, against ground-oriented Florida, also 8-3.

Two of the premier runners in the country will be on display in the Rose Bowl, Southern Cal's Anthony Davis and Ohio State's Archie Griffin. Griffin won the Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding player; Davis was the runnerup.

The Orange Bowl pits unbeaten Alabama, 11-0 and ranked No. 2, against Notre Dame, 9-2, which will be out to win its final game under outgoing Coach Ara Parseghian.

Alabama hopes that a big victory will give it the national crown.

"If we beat Notre Dame, I think we'll be No. 1 because there ain't gonna be nobody else 12-0," says Alabama Coach Bear Bryant.

Top-rated Oklahoma is 11-0 but won't have a chance to add to that because it is on National Collegiate Athletic Association probation and ineligible for bowl play.

The final Associated Press poll for the 1974 football season will be taken after the Jan. 1 bowl games.

Mississippi State rushed for 455 yards in the Sun Bowl, Walter Packer gaining 183 and Terry Vitranio 164, while North Carolina piled up 402 yards rushing in the losing effort.

After the Peach Bowl ended in a tie, Coaches Steve Sloan of Vanderbilt and Jim Carlen of Texas Tech called for an overtime period for bowl action. "It seems there should be a system to play off in bowl games," said Sloan. And Carlen added, "A tie bothers you."

Brigham Young failed to mount much of an offense after losing star quarterback Gary Sheide with a shoulder separation in the first quarter. Oklahoma State went ahead for good on a 12-yard run by Kenny Walker after an interception by Tony Buck of a pass by Sheide's backup man, Mark Giles.

A blocked punt and three interceptions against All-American quarterback Steve Bartkowski helped the East nip the West in the Shrine Game.

Steelers Rip Raiders

OAKLAND (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers are heading toward territory in which they've never trod before.

Oh, they've been in New Orleans before. In fact, they've won all three games they've played there. But never in their 42-year history have they played in a National Football League championship.

But on Jan. 12 in New Orleans, one of Art Rooney's dreams comes true. His Steelers will be playing for all the marbles.

The other dream, of course, is to win them. To do that, the Steelers will have to beat the Minnesota Vikings. But for now, beating Oakland is satisfaction enough for one of pro football's grand old men.

"I feel like a big shot," the subdued, twinkly-eyed 73-year-old president of the Steelers said as he puffed on a cigar, savoring both it and the 24-13 victory over the Raiders in Sunday's American Conference championship.

And how would it have felt to accompany his players on the plane back to Pittsburgh had they lost? "It would have been like taking the body of a loved one back home," he said.

But his loved ones—like a doting, patient parent, Rooney suffered through 39 years of failure with them before they ever played their first playoff game — are very much alive and kicking.

In fact, they kicked Oakland's rushing game in the teeth, kicked apart Ken Stabler's dreams of a second straight miracle comeback and kicked the Raiders out of the playoff game they were favored to win.

If there really is a mystical force called destiny, Rooney will get his championship in two weeks. His Steelers already believe in it.

"It was meant to be. We were meant to win this thing," quarterback Terry Bradshaw said after his cool, precise signal calling and passing carried Pittsburgh to the summit of Super Bowl IX. "We knew we were going to win this game ... we came here with the confidence to win."

Bradshaw threw the ball only 17 times — and he didn't even have to do that. Not with Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier behind him, waiting to take the ball and run it down the Raiders' throats.

Harris bulldozed his way through the astoundingly malleable Oakland line 29 times for 111 yards and two touchdowns. And when the Raiders managed to stop him — which was rare — Bleier was right there, adding 98 yards on 18 carries.

Even Bradshaw got into the ground game, rushing three times for 15 yards. And astonishingly, his total was more than half the total yardage gained by entire Oakland running corps.

Twenty-one times the Raiders punched into Pittsburgh's front line of defense. The result was a meager 29 yards, a new low for an AFC title game.

"They gave us nothing on the ground," Oakland Coach John Madden understated. "Our passing was sufficient but we just couldn't get the run going. I can't remember when our ground game was shut down that effectively ... to win, you've got to have a mixture on offense. We were able to call the mixture, but we couldn't make it go."

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Host Hawaii meets Indiana for the title tonight.

Ohio State and Villanova meet in the losers slot for the consolation game.

Bowling Green fell before an onslaught of eight consecutive free throws in the last 1½ minutes, as Oral Roberts captured the championship of the Oral Roberts Classic.

The host team held an 87-86 lead with less than two minutes left when it went into a delay game to keep the ball away from Bowling Green.

The fouls came as Bowling Green tried to get the ball.

Miami of Ohio defeated host Evansville 70-68 for the Evansville Holiday Tournament championship.

Miami's Steve Fields was named the tourney's most valuable player, averaging 21 points a game.

The victory boosted Miami's season mark to 8-2.

Duke held a 10-point advantage at halftime and racked up eight unanswered points at the start of the second half to ice the victory.

Dayton shot 27 of 30 from the line to edge Akron 73-72 in a nip-and-tuck battle. The Flyers had trailed 24-10 in the first half, but closed the gap at 30-all and took a slight edge at halftime. They held off the Zips in the second half.

Cavaliers Victors, But Austin Carr Lost

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland Coach Bill Fitch is hoping the Cavaliers can adjust to the loss of their star shooter and playmaker Austin Carr.

The loss of their leading scorer, possibly for the rest of the season, was announced prior to the Cavaliers defeating the Atlanta Hawks 110-103 in a National Basketball Association game Sunday.

"It was a big victory for us," said Fitch, who said that Carr's injured knee was to be operated on this morning. "This could be a very long season if we don't adjust to playing without him."

Hayes Fears Long Layoff Damaging

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Woody Hayes, a devotee of conservative, error-proof football, is a worried man on the eve of his Ohio State team's Rose Bowl encounter with Southern California.

"We've been off nearly five weeks. We could be mistake prone," Hayes told a horde of newsmen Sunday night at the team's hotel headquarters.

Even so, the Ohio State coach of 24 seasons will not abandon his close-to-the-vest style that has produced 202 career victories at Denison, Miami of Ohio and OSU.

"The fancy teams finish ninth and tenth in the conference," he asserted. "We'll let them do the bouncing around with the football. This isn't basketball, you know."

The Buckeyes committed only 14 major errors—10 lost fumbles and four interceptions—in whipping 10 of 11 regular season opponents to share the Big Ten crown with Michigan.

Southern California, the Pac-8 titleholder and 9-1-1 for all games, was guilty of nearly twice as many turnovers. The Trojans lost the ball 16 times on fumbles, 10 on interceptions.

Then does Hayes think turnovers will decide the New Year's Day duel before more than 100,000 in the Rose Bowl, and millions more watching on national television (NBC)?

"Mistakes can pretty well decide every game," he replied.

"Take that game today," Hayes continued, talking about Minnesota's 14-10 pro playoff victory over Los Angeles. "At first, no one wanted to accept the football."

Flyers Top Buffalo In NHL, 5-2

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

To hear Bernie Parent tell it, you would think the Philadelphia Flyers got bombed in their National Hockey League game against the Buffalo Sabres Sunday night.

"This is the toughest game I've had in a long time," moaned Parent. "The last 10 games I've had an average of 22 shots against me. Nothing like this. These guys just keep coming at you all the time."

Parent and company may have had a rough outing but you couldn't tell from the score — Flyers 5, Sabres 2.

Philadelphia Coach Fred Shero wasn't very sympathetic either.

"Parent didn't have that many dangerous shots," said Shero. "A lot of them were from long range. They didn't put the pressure on us. I thought they would be more aggressive."

Elsewhere in the NHL, the New York Islanders pounded Washington 7-0, the New York Rangers edged Kansas City 2-1 and Chicago beat St. Louis 5-2.

The Sabres were forced to play catch-up hockey after only 13 seconds of the first period when Philadelphia's Reg Leach scored his 15th goal in the last 17 games. Bob Kelly and Bill Clement also had first-period goals for Philadelphia. Andre Dupont and Gary Dornhoefer got the final two Flyer goals, while Gil Perreault, scoring his 24th, and Norm Gratton connected for Buffalo.

Vikes Stop LA, 14-10

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — In a strange, error-filled battle, the opportunistic Minnesota Vikings have rolled to their second straight National Football Conference championship and another Super Bowl appearance with a 14-10 victory over Los Angeles.

"We just made too many mistakes in opportune situations," said Rams' quarterback James Harris, who completed 13 of 23 pass attempts for 248 yards. "They played better than we did and beat us."

Minnesota, which has gained a reputation of turning opponent mistakes into championships, lost the ball four times Sunday on turnovers. However, the Rams were plagued by five turnovers and numerous tactical blunders — particularly seven penalties including an offside infraction which occurred at the Vikings' one.

Minnesota took a 7-0 lead in the second period when Jim Lash, a second-year wide receiver from Northwestern, hauled in a 29-yard scoring pass from Fran Tarkenton a step ahead of LA right cornerback Al Clark.

The Rams countered with David Ray's 27-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3 by halftime.

Then, in the third quarter, a series of unlikely developments unfolded.

The Vikings' Mike Eischeid punted the ball out of bounds at the LA one. The Rams, sparked by a 73-yard pass play from Harris to wide receiver Harold Jackson on a broken play, moved to the Minnesota one.

Jackson had dashed 50 yards after taking a desperation pass from Harris near midfield, and was knocked out of bounds inside the two by Viking defensive back Jeff Wright.

After the five-yard penalty set LA back to the six, Harris scrambled for four yards, but on the next play he was intercepted by Wally Hilgenberg in the end zone. Harris' pass, intended for tight end Pat Curran, was deflected by Viking defensive back Jackie Wallace.

Minnesota quickly drove 80 yards with veteran running back Dave

Osborn hurdling the final yard to push the Vikings into a 14-3 advantage early in the fourth quarter.

Harris got the Rams back into the game three minutes later when he combined with Jackson on a scoring pass covering 44 yards to chop the Minnesota lead to 14-10.

However, many of the players expected to be central figures in the outcome of NFC title match had trouble throughout the game played in bright sunshine and a 31 degree temperature.

The Rams' Lawrence McCutcheon was limited to 32 yards in a dozen carries. Minnesota's Chuck Foreman managed 80 yards in 22 carries, but fumbled four times. Tarkenton also was obviously not operating in top form, overthrowing his receivers several times and being intercepted on another poor throw.

"The Rams defense is the toughest I've ever played against," said Tarkenton. "They did a lot of things which took away a good part of our offense."

And the Rams did a lot of things to take away from their own offense.

"If you can't smile now you never will," said Minnesota Coach Bud Grant.

Phil Esposito of the Boston Bruins led the National Hockey League in scoring last season with 145 points. He netted 68 goals and was credited with 77 assists.

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR TUESDAY
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): Routine matters favored more than the unusual. New developments in the making: study people, trends. What you uncover will prove valuable in the future.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): If not overanxious, you can make extraordinary gains now. Careful thought and consideration of past procedures will give you direction.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): Strongly benefic Mercury influences should help you put over worthwhile plans now. Some changes may have to be made, but they will prove beneficial in the long run.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): Stress quality rather than quantity in your efforts. Get TODAY'S matters tended before seeking further. You are adept at squeezing out the best in a project—important now.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): If you take minor annoyances in stride, as Leos usually do, you should enjoy your day. Chosen goals are nearer. Increased favors indicated.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): What you did yesterday or last week may have to be redone in part, but do not look upon this day as problematical or you will not see its many virtues.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): Better than usual advantages, but more than usual effort asked, too. Some past investment of money or time begins to pay; invest more for the future.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22): You may think you have something under control, rolling briskly. Better take another look for hidden flaws, anything that could mean time, energy lost.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): An original twist or a new method could brighten routine, but don't go to extremes and attempt the bizarre.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): You may possibly have to set aside certain personal desires in order to show your abilities in the best light. The effort you make in this regard will pay off, however.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Present everything in your thorough, affable manner; thus you will win points and outwit the competition. Do your best but don't undertake the unreasonable.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Both regular work and new ventures favored. Returns from past efforts indicated very soon. Whatever you do well will have long-range value.

YOU BORN TODAY are amiable, industrious and so practical and methodical that you can often get ahead where the road seems completely blocked, and others would turn back. You have a fine mind and seek out companionship which is intellectually stimulating; may take up a unique hobby which eventually proves remunerative. Don't anticipate trouble or negate your efforts through pessimism. Fields in which you could be especially successful: science, writing, diplomacy, statesmanship, instructor in literature or languages.

Flint Generals Top Muskegon

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Kirk Bowman and Frank Beaton of Flint decided to add a little spice Sunday night in their International Hockey League game against Muskegon.

So Bowman scored twice, and Beaton added a third goal—all within two minutes—as the Generals came from behind to stop Muskegon 5-2. The victory gave Flint a 23-11-3 record and undisputed possession of first place in the IHL North.

In other games, Lansing topped Port Huron 6-2, Toledo downed Saginaw 6-3, Columbus and Des Moines tied at 4-4 and Dayton skated past Fort Wayne 4-1.

Clergy Taught To Enunciate

WELLS, England (AP) — Lessons in reading the lesson in church have been started by two speech consultants appointed to the Anglican diocese of Bath and Wells. Training sessions in speaking and reading have been held for clergy and laity, who have been able to criticize their own performances with the help of a cassette recorder. The consultants, Mrs. Brigid Somerset and Mrs. Helen Harvey, say that "nervousness and lack of confidence" affect many people, but much can be done to alleviate these problems.

Views On Television

LOS ANGELES (AP) — What do television series stars do during their between-season vacations? In the case of Michael Douglas, he's producing a $3-million movie. The talented son of Kirk Douglas finished his third season of "The Streets of San Francisco" this month. In January he starts producing "One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest" starring Jack Nicholson and directed by Milos Forman. The film will be made almost entirely at the Oregon State Mental Hospital at Salem.

Young Douglas, 30, is an example of a modern maverick working inside the Establishment. It seemed inevitable that he would go into acting — his mother, Diana Dill, is an actress, and his father is one of the screen's most durable stars. "One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest" has a long history, dating back to 1963, when Kirk Douglas starred in the Broadway play. It had a one-month run, but was not a success.

"People came out of the play loving it," said Michael, "but they told their friends, 'It's okay — if you like laughing at crazy people.' Attitudes toward mental illness were different then." Kirk Douglas bought the movie rights and twice neared production, but the deals fell through. Law suits over ownership of the property further stalled the film version, and Douglas decided three years ago to dispose of the play.

"Let me take it over," his son urged. "I can at least get back what you put into it." Characteristically, Michael Douglas declined to take "Cuckoo's Nest" to major companies, seeking instead to make the film with complete independence. He finally found a backer: Sol Zaentz, operator of the Berkeley-based Fantasy Records, home of the Credence Clearwater Revival and other rock stars.

The movie, as well as other factors, appears to have interrupted plans for Douglas to marry actress Brenda Vaccaro, with whom he has lived for five years. "With all the work I've had preparing the picture, plus problems with the families, it got to be too much of a hassle," said Douglas.

1975 Gold Rush Slated For Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 1975 gold rush begins Tuesday in Ohio as across the nation.

For the first time in more than 40 years, Ohioans will be able to legally buy that precious metal, gold.

But Ohio bankers, coin dealers and brokers refuse to predict the amount of sales or speculate on what will be the effect of the gold sales.

Only 16 per cent of 257 banks in the state surveyed by The Ohio Banker have plans to sell gold tomorrow. Most of the others are taking a wait-and-see attitude.

The City National Bank and Trust Co. in Columbus made a corporate decision not to sell gold, according to John A. Russell, vice president and director of marketing.

"As a banking institution, we do not want to be put into the position of sticking small people with shakey investments," he said.

Russell said the high cost of gold, fluctuations in price, significant service charges, storage cost and state sales tax made the commodity a bad risk for the average citizen and typical banking customer.

"We really don't have any idea of what to expect," said Howard Schwarz, account executive at Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc. in Columbus.

Schwarz said account executives at the brokerage house held a "broad spectrum of opinion" from extremely active gold sales the first day to no interest at all.

"My personal feeling is that the market will be a novelty type of market," Schwarz said.

Don Devore, owner of Devore's Buckeye Coin Shop, said he expects lines outside his shop on Tuesday. "We've already got orders," he said, explaining that customers had put in advance requests for hundreds of ounces.

Devore predicted a "lot of profit-taking" and secondguessing by sellers and buyers of gold. But, he said, "a lot of people are just waiting to see what will happen."

Devore said gold coins were a safer buy, as coins are more easily liquified, or turned back into cash.

"It's the same old story," he said, "you don't buy diamonds in the local bar." Devore said buyers and sellers alike would have to be careful that gold purchased was properly assayed and authenticated for purity, weight and worth.

Prowler Escapes Youths

Patrolmen Ron Smith, Ron Thompson and Bill Pontious investigated a prowler and assault call at the residence of Roy Huffer Jr., 975 Circle Dr., at 3:30 a.m. Monday.

According to police report, Roy Huffer III, 14, and Scott Willoughby, 15, were sleeping in the basement of the Huffer home when they heard a noise outside. The two boys went upstairs to investigate and found a man standing outside looking through the kitchen window.

The boys got dressed and Willoughby grabbed a paddle and went outside through the garage where they found the suspect hiding behind some bushes in the backyard.

Willoughby was hit in the mouth by the prowler at the same time he struck the suspect over the head with the paddle. The prowler then ran north toward Rt. 188.

Patrolmen Smith, Pontious and Thompson searched the area but were unable to find anyone.

Sgt. Jerry Smallwood is continuing an investigation on an auto larceny reported by Mike Mogan, 343 E. High St.

Mogan reported that he parked his car in a private parking lot on the South side of the Firestone Store, 124 S. Scioto St. 10 p.m. Saturday. Mogan returned at 11:15 p.m. to find the car missing.

Sis Won't Yield Farm

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The sister of actor Marlon Brando says she will not give up the Illinois farm land owned jointly with her brother despite his announcement that he will donate all of his United States land holdings to the American Indians.

Brando said last week that he would give up the farm, about 40 acres near Calabasas, Calif., a home in Los Angeles and an apartment complex in nearby Anaheim. His sister, Mrs. Richard Loving, said Sunday that she would not relinquish her part of the 40-acre farm in Mindelein, Ill., which she refers to as "the family homestead."

"We are not giving this land away. There is no question about it," Mrs. Loving said.

Brando has been active for several years in Indian causes and refused the Academy Award in 1972 to protest the portrayal of Indians in films.

Split Rail Crash Cause

THOMPSONTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Penn Central officials say a split rail caused the derailment over the weekend of a 17-car Amtrak passenger liner, resulting in minor injuries to 56 persons.

The Broadway Limited, with 435 passengers on board, was en route from Chicago to New York when the mishap occurred Saturday morning about 40 miles northwest of Harrisburg.

A railroad spokesman said the top of part of the track was split vertically, causing 13 cars to slip off the rail as it was rounding a curve.

Hospital officials said 36 persons were treated for minor scrapes and bruises at Lewistown Hospital and 20 persons were treated at Polyclinic Hospital in Harrisburg.
